RESULTS EDITION

"Circulation Books Open to All."

"Circulation Books Open to All,"

PRICE ONE CENT.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1905.

VARIOUS EXPRESSIONS OF PRESIDENT M'CURDY,

UNDER THE KEEN THRUSTS OF PROBER HUGHES.

(Sketched at the hearing for The Evening World by Artist Mortimer.)

OTO 1 SHOT WINNER BY

WHO STOLE $101,000

Cunliffe, Adams Express Co. Employee, Is Arrested at Bridgeport, Conn.

Tempted Because He Had Small Salary and Was Daily Handling Thousands.

(Special to The Evening World.)
BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 19.—Ed-Pittsburg office, who disappeared on the evening of Oct. 9 with $161,000 of the mpany's funds, was arrested here tout made a full confession of his guilt. hand. He was asked what had become of the when arrested. His answer was:

"Every dollar of the money is intact. The package has never been touched. time. I will go back to Pittsburg with-out awaiting extradition, and when I

It is believed that Cunliffe has the called to the stand this testimony came money securely hidden and that he will from his father.

How He Was Caught. Detectives under the direction of aniel C. Thornhill, Superintendent of the Pinkerton agency in New York. traced Cunliffe here, and upon their arrival early this morning sought the were watched carefully, but. Cunlifie Q. Who solicited money from His bride was Mrs. Virginia Otis, a when he was seen by Superintendent O'Connell to his aid and O'Connell placed the man under arrest. Cunliffe ade no attempt to deny his identity Admits His Guilt. I am Cunlifte," he said, in reply officer's question. "I guess the attempt ) escape and accompanied Thornhill and the policemen to he office of Superintendent of Police Birmingham. There in the presence of uperintendent Birmingham, Thornhill. enry Curtis, the local agent of the money. He refused to say what he had done with it, but said that it was all

I was sorry," said Cunliffe, "but it was too late then to do anything. What thousands of dollars a day. I was tempted and I fell. I have handled larger sums. I remember once when I had $250,000 in cash. I was tempted then, but I thought it over and I de-

"The night that I left Pittsburg ! rode in a sleeper on the way to New York, and I stuck my head out of my but knowing that he did not see me and that I had the money with me in nations and Great Northren Raliwa. cash, I thought I would take a chance.

On Cunliffe's Trail. Cunliffe said that he went directly to New York, and that he came to Bridgeport Inst Tuesday. In Bridgeport Cunliffe has been living at a hotel of an inferior class in the lower part of the city. The fact that a man answering the description of Cunliffe was staying at the hotel became known early in the day, when the arrival of Pinkerton detectives set the Bridgeport police to making a close search for the fugitive. With the ald of a picture of Cun-

M'CURDY, JR., RODE IN PRIVATE CAR AT

Took Family Party on "Business" Jaunt to California-His Father Denies that He Ever Contributed to Judicial Campaign Funds in the City.

The travelling expense accounts of Robert H. McCurdy, son of the Mutual Life's president, and various political contributions solicited from ward George Cuntiffe, money clerk of President Richard A. McCurdy, were dug out at the legislative insurance

In February, 1901, "Prince" Bob got $1,500 for the Mutual Life for travelling expenses. Two months later he got $1,300 for the same purpose ney, as he only had $290 in cash on fornia That was in January, 1904. He rode in a private car, and was accompanied by his father, his mother, his Asked by Both Parties.

Mutual Life ever contribute to any funds in a judicial campaign in this city? A. Monstrous! I can't conceive of anything of the kind.

Q. Were you solfeited in the enmly this morning sought the paign of 1904 for contributions! local police. All the hotels A. Yes, but I didn't give anything.

for contributions? A. Probably.

off hand where you were last October.

The Monroes are foreign bankers Bob said he hadn't been in Europe that

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 19,-While

The weapon was placed against the

RACES AT LATONIA

LATONIA RACE TRACK, Oct. 19

MUTUAL'S EXPENSE

wife and his wife's maid.

"Prince" Bob said that all this travnot arrested until about noon, yout A. Oh, I couldn't say with Those questions were suggested insleted Mr. Hughes.

Hughes Knows Where He Was to travelling expenses in 1908 in favor of John Monroe & Co.

as far as Chicago with Vice-President Gillette. He also went "on business" to Boston and Providence. He drew

(Continued on Third Page.)

SHOT DEAD IN CROWD.

at Troupe, Tex., to-day by a passens whom he had ejected from the chair back of Mr. Etheridge's head and his brains blown out.

J. G. HECKSCHER AT 73 WEDS YOUNG WIDOW

Bride in Secret Marriage of Mayor's Father-in-Law Was Mrs. Otis.

John Gerard Heckscher, the father-in law of Mayor McClellan, has taken a beautiful widow, who has a daughter fifteen years old, and who lived for eighth street. Previous to that she re sided at No. 10 West Sixty-fifth street. The marriage was secret, and it is Rebo 3. daughters-Mrs. McC'ellan and Mrs. intimation of it came through the news- 2, Graceful 3. nonths ago, but the fact did not leak out until last night when Mr. and Mrs. Heckscher attended the Hippodrome of the tenants in the house in which she lived at West Sixty-eighth street, but Massa 3. was very friendly with Elita Proctor Otis, the actress, who lived next door. billind, who was called by the child 2, Sailor Boy 3. The daughter, the grandmother and he servant are at present living at No.

"Granny," and an old negro servant. 381 Central Park West. Mr. Heckscher and his bride are living at the Hotel Marie Antolnette

His third marriage adds a chapter to a career that has been growded with romance and excitement. In 1873 he twenty years. The second Mrs. Heck- player. sher died five years ago. She was the war, fighting through the last two years of that confest and retiring with necessary to take up any line of business, for his father was a wealthy man for those days, and his position in so-

ISHMALIAN AT LONG PRICE IS FIFTH WINNER

Notter Cets Schaefer's Horse Up in Time to Nip Jane Holly at Post.

WINNERS AT JAMAICA.

FIRST RACE-Oak Duke (even) 1. Kinleydale (9 to 10 for place) 2,

SECOND RACE-Quadrille (16 to 5) 1, Platoon (5 to 2 for place) 2,

THIRD RACE-Colonial Girl (7 Henry Rogers Winthiop-that their first to 10) 1, Novena (8 to 1 for place)

FOURTH RACE-Arklinta (9 to 10) 1, Third Alarm (7 to 1 for place) FIFTH RACE-Imalian (40 to 1)

SIXTH RACE-Alma Dufour (6

With Mrs. Otis lived an aged lady, to 5) 1, Red Knight (out for place)

BY FRANK W. THORP.

JAMAICA RACE TRACK, NEW YORK, Oct. 19. - Attractions are surprisingly large at Jamaica this fall. larger than they were last year at the ume time under a cheaper rate. The opened up a big gap on Deviltree, who

Good Thing Rebo Failed. Rebo was a red-hot good thing in the second race, but Quadrille, the second choice, upset the game by going to the front and opening up a big gap, withing easily by five lengths from Platon, who closed strong and beat Rebo a head for the place. The good thing was off very slowly. Water Mirror showed spend enough to stay in second place in the stretch, where he blew up.

RACE SUICIDE HIT BY BISHOP OF LONDON

LONDON. Oct. 19.—The felling birth- viewed this diminution of the birth

EVENING WORLD RACING CHART

AT JAMAICA.

Fourth Day-Oct. 19, 1905.

Track Fast.

181 FIRST RACE -1700 added; for two-year-olds; five and one-half furiones 1, Jane Holly (2 to 1 for place) 2, 282 SECOND RACE $600 added; selling; three-year-olds and upward; six furl

JEROME BLUNTLY GIVES THE LIE TO LEADER MURPHY

District-Attorney Squarely Denies Tammany Chieftain's Statement that He Wanted to Join the Wigwam and Go on the General Committee.

Charles F. Murphy, in a carefully prepared statement to-day, charged that District-Attorney Jerome not only sought a nomination from Temmany Hall, but offered to join the Tammany Hall General

Mr. Murphy said that if Mr. Jerome denied that he had solicited the l'anymany nomination speakers would prove it from the platform at the ratification meeting at Tammany Hall to-night.

The District-Attorney was not at his Good Ground very often in his spoffice to-day, but when the Murphy The reason he is so familiar statement was issued a copy of it was Good Ground is that one of the me atform. But I will not say that Mur-

Says he Agreed to Join Tammany.

to join the Tammany. Hall General or the morale one particle. I Committee. If Jerome denies this betore the ratification meeting here to-night we will prove the truth of it from the platform.

"I notice, too, that Jerome mentioned, plicated defails of the office."

the Gas Investigation Committee

never sought the indorsement of either party. There is falso.

"Mr. Jerome sent a confidential man to see me on two or three occasions in his own behalf. I told this man that it was not necessary to see me. Then Jerome sent to me again and asked if he could see me personally.

"I sent back word that it was not necessary; in fact, I told him that if he was to be nominated it would be much better if he did not see me, that no pledgres were wanted and that his case was in the hands of the convention.

He persisted, however, and said that he was anxious to meet me at any time or place in order that he could have a distinct understanding. He even agreed to join the Tammany Hall General Committee. If Jerome denies this be-

RESULTS OF ALL TO-DAY'S SPORTS

LATE RESULTS AT LATONIA.

Fifth-Dundall 30-1, Verandah 6-5 place, Lady Lou. Sixth-Amberita 7-2, Dolinda 8-1 place, Dungannon.

SEARCHED LINER BALTIC WITH WARRANTS. Two Deputy United States Marshals went aboard the White Star liner Baltic just before she sailed to-day and, producing a bench warrant, searched the ship for two suspected fugitives.

Neither of the men wanted was found. The warrants called for the arrest of Sominico and Pietro Pitrello, charged with perjury in citizenship frauds. The cases were on trial in United States Circuit Court yesterday and both men were under bond. Their counsel told to-day of their flight

TO RENOUNCE THRONE. BRUSSELS, Belgium, Oct. 19.—The Count of Flanders prother of King Leopold, and Heir Apparent to the throne, is about to renounce his succession in behalf of his son Prince Albert. The Count's action is due to his poor health and total